Out of the Parent Bedy.

The members of the Noah L. Farnham Post, which was recently expelled from the Grand Army of the Republic because of the resolutions it had adopted calling for a revision of the Pension laws, have just taken a step which may cause a big split in the organization of Union veteran soldiers.

The Farnham veterans have also descent will parade as an independent body on Memorial Day, but its members will remove from their hats the Grand Army insignia. ganization of Union veteran soldiers.

In other words, instead of disbanding after the decree issued by Department Commander Joseph P. Cleary, they have decided to establish a new organization, which shall become in time a rival of the G. A. R., and Farnham Post has become Noah L. Farnham Independent late of the country.

In other words, instead of disbanding members who wish to join the new organization may enter their names at once. It is said that they are already getting recruits from other posts, so it is evident that the spirit of revolution is already at work in this city, and it is believed that it will rapidly spread all over the country. come Noah L.
